Development Appeals

A decision or order of the Development Officer can be appealed.

Who Can Appeal?

Development appeals may be filed by anyone who is affected by the decision of the Development Authority in relation to a development proposal. Appeals may not be filed for a permitted use unless the Development Authority has relaxed, varied or misinterpreted the Land Use Bylaw.

How to Appeal

Anyone wishing to appeal must complete the Notice of Appeal form. The appeal must contain the following information:

- Legal land description and municipal address, if applicable, of the land proposed to be developed or subdivided;
- The reason for appeal including the issues in the decision or the conditions imposed in the approval that are subject to the appeal;
- Applications must be accompanied by the applicable fee.
- Notice of Appeal forms may be obtained during business hours from: Summer Village Office (Phone 403.740.1572, located at #8 Front Street, White Sands, AB). Office hours are 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday to Thursday

Note

1. The issuance of a Development Permit in accordance with the Notice of Decision is subject to the condition that it does not become effective until 21 days following the date of advertisement.
2. Any development proceeded with by the applicant prior to the expiry of the 21 day period is done solely at the risk of the applicant.
3. This permit is effective for a period of 12 months from the date of its issue, or the date of decision of the Subdivision & Development Appeal Board confirming it. If at the expiry of this period, the development has not been commenced or carried out with reasonable diligence, as determined by the Development Officer, this permit ceases to be effective, unless an extension to this period, being no longer than an additional 12 months, has previously been granted by the Development Officer.
4. Compliance with the requirements of the Land Use Bylaw does not exempt any person from the requirements or any Federal, Provincial, or Municipal legislation or complying with any easement, covenant, agreement or contract affecting the development.
